Scope

This policy applies to all Debaser operations, employees, Board of Director members, and committee members.

Debaser's policies are living, interconnected documents. Together, they define our values, principles, and commitments, and they compose the fabric of our organization. Debaser's policies include the following:

- a. Mission, Vision, and Values [link when ready]
- b. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Policy [link when ready]
- c. Safer Spaces - Survivor Centric Policy [link when ready]
- d. HR - Reducing Recruitment Bias Policy [link when ready]
- e. Partnership Engagement Policy [link when ready]
- f. Accessibility Policy [link when ready]

Policy Inspiration

We would like to thank the Global Network of Civil Society Organisations for Disaster Reduction, Peterborough Public Library, and Emily Johnson / Catalyst from whose partnership policies and resources we took inspiration (and in a few cases, borrowed language directly).

Amendment & Review

This Policy may be amended with the approval of the Debaser Board of Directors.

In order to ensure its ongoing effectiveness, this Policy should be periodically reviewed by the Debaser Board. The schedule for periodic/upcoming review shall be decided by the Board at the time of the latest review and approval for the Policy.

Contact Information and Feedback Process

Feedback regarding conflict of interest is welcome and appreciated. Feedback may be provided in the following ways:

- By email: hello@debaser.ca
- Using our policy feedback form (option to submit anonymously)

A Debaser staff member will provide an email response to feedback within five business days. Feedback without contact info will not receive a response.

Debaser is committed to ensuring our feedback process is accessible. You can request accessible formats and communication support by contacting hello@debaser.ca.

The administration and application of this policy is the responsibility of Debaser's Board of Directors. For any partnership queries, including questions or feedback regarding this policy, contact hello@debaser.ca.

GENERAL TERMS OF POLICY (scope/ability) (MVV reinforcement)

1. Definition of a partner

Debaser is committed to maintaining partnerships with organizations that support and/or reflect Debaser's mandate, vision, and core values, as elaborated above, either explicitly or implicitly. Additionally, a potential partner supports and aligns with Debaser's other policies, including its Safer Spaces, Accessibility, and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion policies.

2. Values informing partnerships

As an arts presenter and community partner, Debaser's work is informed by the organization's mandate and vision statement.

Debaser is committed to creating inclusive and responsive community spaces that cultivate shared understanding, joy, and social impact. We follow a care-centered approach that promotes safety, accessibility, and anti-oppression, and supports self-directed forms of participation. We work to make sure that all aspects of Debaser's work align with our core values: respect, equity, inclusivity, consent, safety, well-being, and self-determination.

There are two types of entities that Debaser partners with:

2.2.a Community partner

A Community partner is a non-profit organization, unincorporated ad-hoc collective, or individual whose mandate and vision is aligned with those of Debaser. Partnership with a Community partner may benefit either or both organizations by sharing resources, supporting outreach, or otherwise broadening impact.

2.2.b For-profit partner

A for-profit partner is a for-profit business or corporation. A for-profit partner may benefit from partnership with Debaser for marketing or outreach purposes, while Debaser may benefit from partnership with a for-profit partner through cash, in-kind contributions, support for outreach, and broadened impact.

3. Partnership Criteria

Debaser is interested in partnerships with organizations, institutions, collectives and individuals that:

1. Offer resources that support the fulfillment of Debaser's mandate and vision; and/or
2. Undertake activities that support the fulfillment of Debaser's mandate and vision; and/or
3. Stand to benefit from resources that Debaser can offer to it.

PARTNERSHIP CONDITIONS

1. General conditions of Debaser partnerships are determined through the negotiation of a partnership agreement, created by both parties.
2. Debaser requires its partners to provide transparency on their operations, governance, and finances (i.e. investors or investments) upon request to ensure that they support and align with Debaser's mandate and vision, core values, and policies.
3. Debaser is committed to upholding the principles of PACBI as defined on the PACBI website, outlined here. Please refer to our statement here.
4. A non-disclosure clause is included in and applicable to all Debaser partnership agreements, and can vary in severity and confidentiality by and can vary in conditions based on the context of the partnership. Financial and accounting elements of the agreement are subject to non-disclosure, as well as but not limited to intellectual property, business secrets, and internal processes of operations.
5. Debaser and its partners are to respect each other's right to determine what is best for their own organization or group, as long as their statements and actions do not perpetuate harm or constitute racism, misogyny, homophobia, transphobia, ableism, or other forms of oppression.
6. Board Committees such as Policy, Treasury and Human Resources are capable of interceding within the scope of their purview, and are entitled to overseeing the development of partnerships at any given time within the process. Provisions and recommendations from aforementioned committees will be held in account at the discretion of Debaser staff throughout this process.

DEBASER PARTNERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Debaser's role and responsibilities for partnerships are outlined within the partnership agreement, which is signed by both parties. Debaser will hold itself accountable to the terms of individual partnerships via the parameters outlined within the partnership agreement, and more foundationally through its mandate and vision (See section 2).

PARTNER RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Partner is to follow and adhere to the outlined roles and responsibilities within the signed partnership agreement. The Partner will deliver the expected goods and services that were negotiated and agreed upon in the agreement to the best of their ability, and ought to be delivered and completed as outlined within the agreement.
2. The Partner is responsible for ensuring that the quality of the goods and services offered in the partnership agreement meet the same quality and standard of their non-partnered services. This includes but is not limited to rentals, usage of facilities, skillsharing, labour, and human resources.

PROCEDURES

1. Amendments to partnership agreements may be made via mutual agreement of both parties.
2. Process for Renewal of Partnerships
 1. A review of the previous agreement and assessment of partnership health and suitability shall be conducted prior to the renewal of partnership agreements between Debaser and a current Partner. The Debaser Board of Directors are capable of interceding within the scope of their purview, and are entitled to overseeing the development of partnerships at any given time within the process at their discretion.
 2. Completion of the roles and responsibilities outlined in the partnership agreement by both parties is grounds for renewal.
 3. Failure to uphold the roles and responsibilities outlined in the partnership agreement, from either or both parties, is grounds for suspension or termination of the partnership.
3. Termination of Partnership
 1. Termination of an agreement is contingent on adherence to the obligations outlined in the partnership agreement.
 2. Immediate termination can be invoked at the discretion of Debaser staff or Board of Directors if the Partner violates Debaser's Code of Conduct as outlined in the Partnership Agreement, or evidence of the Partner participating in malpractice, harmful behaviour, or illicit activity.
